BONALDO

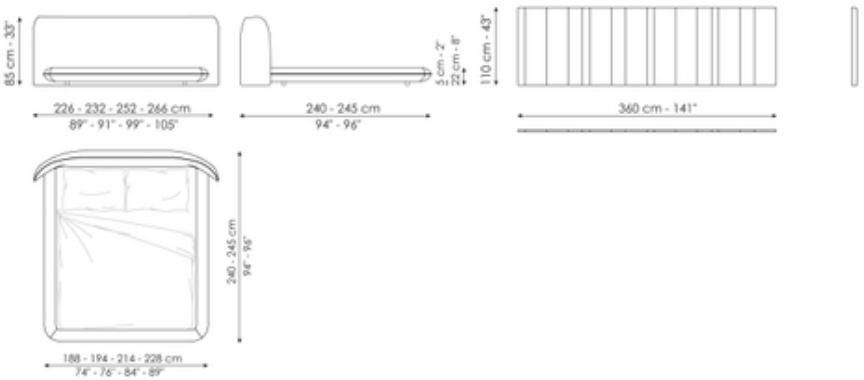

Nubo

Designer: Massimo Castagna

Nubo is not merely a modern design double bed; it is an experience that transforms the way you spend time in the sleeping area. Shapes and elements come together in a sensory dialogue, giving life to an environment with a strong scenic impact that is both intimate and enveloping at the same time.
Designed by Massimo Castagna, this modern double bed, together with the boiserie of the same name NUBO, interprets the concept of lightness through an organic and fluid presence, recalling the image of a cloud, a suspended and continuously transforming element. Its presence is delicate and distinctive: a volume that interacts with the space, redefining its proportions and influencing its perception. The geometry of the headboard, low and sinuous, naturally welcomes the harmonious frame of the bed and attracts both the gaze and touch, while the fluidity of the undulating shapes is an invitation to relax.
The padded boiserie, available as an optional element, further enriches the dialogue with the surrounding architecture, becoming a natural extension of the design and helping to create a visual continuity that blurs the boundaries of the space, giving it depth and character.
